VOL. 14, NUMBER 55 MONESSEN, PA, TUESDAY, AUGUST 17, 1915 SIX CENTS THE WEEK

Two More Announce For The Judgeship

The Judicial campaign in Westmoreland county is on in earnest with three candidates in the field. The judiciary being non partisan and the success of Democrats in recent campaigns, has been the means of bringing two members of this party to the front. George B. Shaw introduced himself to Monessen voters yesterday. While Mr. Shaw is by no means a stranger here, he was a stranger until yesterday in the present campaign.

He is one of the well known members of the Westmoreland county bar, being senior partner of the law firm of Shaw and Silsley. He has practiced law at this bar for 22 years and has handled cases of all kinds, except he has never presented a petition for a liquor license. Mr. Shaw has not only had experience in the Common Pleas courts, but he has had many cases in the higher courts, so that he has a knowledge of the legal profession in all of its branches. He believes, and many of his fellow barristers, assure the people that he is eminently fitted for a place on the bench, and should he be elected to fill that high office, he will interpret the law in a manner that will warrant a full measure of justice to all mankind alike. The black man and the white man, the poor man and the rich man, the corporation and the individual, the foreigner and the American will all be entitled to the same full measure of justice before his tribunal for, as he says, the law was written and intended for all alike.

Mr. Shaw's announcement appears in this paper and in presenting his name to the voters of Monessen and vicinity, he does so with a consciousness that he is ably fitted to meet every requirement and emergency of this high office.

Curtis H. Gregg of Greensburg, widely known and a capable lawyer, has announced his candidacy on the non partisan ballot for the judgeship of Westmoreland county. Mr. Gregg is one of the most successful attorneys at the bar, careful in his preparation of cases and vigorous in their prosecution. Mr. Gregg served one term in Congress, representing the twenty-second district composed of Westmoreland and Butler counties. He won great favor as a congressman and made himself felt on many of the important questions. He proved a good debater, a sound reasoner and an able orator. In the absence of Speaker Clark, he was chosen as temporary chairman to fill the place.

CURTIS H. GREGG

Mr. Gregg is a man who if placed on the bench would make the law humane. He has an ear open to the call of the lowly and would interpret and apply the law in justice to all mankind. He could be a Judge and an approachable and lovable man, for his heart beats in sympathy with the great human family. He could if occasion demands, temper justice with mercy. Mr. Gregg knows the law and knows how to apply it and while he is young in years, he is matured in experience. In his platform, Mr. Gregg sets forth his eminent fitness for the office and many reasons why he is deserving of the support of all voters for the high place which he seeks.

Pathetic Death

Mrs. Julia Sakey died last night at her home, Eleventh and Schoonmaker following a lengthy illness of tuberculosis. The death is made more pathetic owing to the fact that the husband, John Sakey, is a victim of locomotor ataxia, and four small children ranging in age from 3 to 8 years are left to mourn the loss of their mother. The funeral will be held tomorrow from the Slavish Catholic church.

Argument Presented In Court

One of the principal items of court busines this week consisted in the argument of the Monessen Greek Catholic church case. More than one month ago four days were consumed in taking testimony in the case. More than 1,200 typewritten pages of testimony were taken at the time. A cart load of Greek Bibles and other books were brought into court to prove certain conditions which were denied.

Attorneys Walkinshaw & Walkinshaw are counsel for the plaintiffs and Attorneys Robbins & Wyant and Attorney G. I. Katkovich of Pittsburgh, are the legal advisors of the defendants. Considerable time was taken in arguing the numerous facts and law points to the court.

It will be remembered that in 1898, when Monessen was started as a town the Greeks came here and finally organized a congregation. The church was chartered March 28, 1903, and continued its worship in a peaceful manner until another faction appeared and got permission to hold worship in the church. Rev. Paul Ruttkay of Charleroi, is the pastor of the new faction, which claims to have the right of property valued at $75,000. Rev. V. Levaniche is the pastor of the original church known as the Greek Catholic church of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The name assumed by the new body of worshippers is the Russian Orthodox Greek Catholic St. Mary's church.

Judge Copeland listened to all arguments, received the briefs and will render an opinion in due time.

Sudden Death

Michael Hein, aged 26, took suddenly ill at an early hour this morning and before medical attention could be secured, he was dead. Mr. Hein is one of the best known Greeks in the city and was part owner of the bakery shop on Schoonmaker avenue. He was considered the strongest man of his race in town and a great favorite owing to his many feats of strength. He left a local restaurant about one o'clock and went to his home on Schoonmaker avenue. Just as he was retiring he claimed he smelled gas and when his brother arose, he fell over. There was no gas escaping in the room and his sudden illness was evidently due to some unknown cause.

Playground Children Will Give Exhibit

With the closing of the public playgrounds for the season, exhibits of the work accomplished during the summer will be placed on display at the various school buildings near the grounds. Miss Blanche Brightwell, who has been in charge of the Jefferson school building playgrounds during the season, wil have work done by children under her supervision on display all this week in the Jefferson building. At the Third ward school Miss Lillian Chamberlain will hold a display on Friday afternoon and evening. A feature of the evening will be a series of folk dances given by the children. The public is cordially invited to attend these exercises and to inspect the displays of handiwork.

Infuriated Mob Hanged Leo Frank

(United Press Wire)

Leo M. Frank, found guilty of the murder of little Mary Phagan at Atlanta, Georgia, was taken from his cell at the State Prison Farm at Milledgville, about midnight by a mob, who after traveling for over a hundred miles with their prisoner, hanged him on a tree only a few doors from the Phagan home. At noon today the body was still dangling from the tree, while thousands gathered at the scene by auto and on foot to take part in the demonstration. Sheriff Hicks could not be found to quell the disturbance and the Coroner refused to remove the body until instructed. Shortly after noon, heated speeches were delivered by leaders of the crowd who urgd that the body be taken down and mutilated.

Judge Morris appeared on the scene and plead with the crowd to be calm and allow the coroner to take charge of the body, but nevertheless some one in the crowd cut down the corpse and before officials could stop them, had trampled the face of the dead man to a pulp. Mrs. Frank when notified of the mob's actions, swooned and went into convulsions. She was removed to the home of her uncle at Athens, Georgia this afternoon and her condition is serious.

Convention to be Held.

The Prohibition County Convention will be held at the offices of H. S. Gill, County Chairman, South Main street, Greensburg, Pa., on Friday, August 27th, 1915 at 10:30 a. m.

The business to be transacted will be the reports from the offices auditing of accounts, adoption of resolutions and platform, election of party officers, suggestion of candidates for the several county offices to be filled, and any other business that may regularly come before the convention.

Star Was Packed To Capacity

Standing room was at a premium at the Star theatre last evening when Manager McShaffrey opened this popular amusement house for the fall and winter season, and the crowds went away well satisfied that the return of the McShaffrey management and high class photo plays would mark a new epoch in the amusement interests of the town.

The theatre has been painted and improved from gallery to basement, and nothing has been left undone for the comfort and pleasure of the patrons. Walls have been repainted, floors scrubbed and cleaned thoroughly and a new screen and motor plant installed. Two new machines were ordered to be here in time for the opening program, but unfortunately these did not arrive, but will probably be placed in position before the end of the week.

Manager McShaffrey and a force of capable assistants busied themselves during the evening seating the large crowds, and many of the patrons expressed their pleasure of having this old time movie and vaudeville manager again in their midst, certain that it will mean the return of high class photo plays and vaudeville of former days.

Music was furnished by a pianist and violinist, and coupled with "The Clemenceau Case," a most wonderful screen reproduction, the opening program was all that could be expected. Manager McShaffrey will have exclusive control over the Fox and Paramount pictures in this city which assures the public of the best to be secured in high class photoplays.

Sprouse Announces

—N. E. Sprouse, one of the pioneer citizens of the town, announces his candidacy for Justice of the Peace on the Republican ticket at the coming primary election. Mr. Sprouse was one of the first councilmen elected in the borough of Monessen and served a three year term. Later he was chosen by council to fill out an unexpired term. He has been a resident of Monessen for seventeen years, fifteen of which he has spent as blacksmith at the Pittsburgh Steel. Mr. Sprouse solicits the support of the Republican voters of the town to assist him to obtain the nomination.

NOTICE K. OF C.

Monessen Council will hold a farewell reception Wednesday evening, Aug. 18 at 8:30 in Olympic hall. All members requested to be present and bring relatives and friends. 55-2t

Former Local Resident Was Mysteriously Shot Yesterday

Shot in the side as he sat between two companions along Dunlap's Creek, a short distance from Brownsville, Robert Hileman, aged 35, a former well known resident of this city, is in rather a serious condition at the Uniontown hospital. Hileman who was not unconscious following the shooting, says that his assailant was a West Brownsville man, but refuses to divulge his name.

Hileman, with Gordon Bennett, Walter Hartman, C. O. Gue and William Evans are said to have secured a supply of liquor about 6 o'clock yesterday morning and started up the Monongahela railroad tracks. They sat down along the bank of the railroad. According to one story told they had been there only a short time until there was a report of a shot gun on the hill about 200 feet above the party and Hileman, who was sitting between Bennett and Hartman, pitched forward on his face, with a bullet wound in the back of his left side. The other members of the party were so excited that Hileman was permitted to lie on the ground about 30 minutes unattended.

The bullet passed into the back just below the last rib and unless removed, may prove a dangerous wound.

Hartman, Bennett, Gue and Evans were arrested on suspicion pending an investigation and placed in the Brownsville lockup.

The authorities are at a loss to explain the shooting. They cannot accept the motive and believe the shooting may have been accidental. The victim thinks otherwise, stating repeatedly that he is certain of the identity of the man who fired the shot and that he will reveal his name if necessary.

Dr. Waggner who made a careful examination of the wound says that the manner in which the bullet entered the man's body would indicate that the weapon was discharged by a person on the same level as the victim, although Hileman's companions state that the bullet was fired from the hill above them.

An X ray picture was taken at the Uniontown hospital showing that the bullet had penetrated the lower part of the left lung. Mr. Hileman's condition will not be exactly known until the bullet is located. The man was resting well under the circumstances last evening.

Heilman For Council

A. S. Heilman of Fourth street, announces as a candidate for the four year term of Council in the Second ward on the Republican ticket.

Mr. Heilman is a property owner in the borough and is a roller in the Tin mill. He is one of the pioneer residents of the town and one of its foremost citizens and believes he is qualified to look after the affairs of the office to the best interest of the taxpayers. Mr. Heilman seeks the support of the Rpublican electors and promises that if nominated and elected, he will be faithful to the trust imposed upon him.

ATTENTION K. of P.

Members of the Uniformed Rank K. of P. will assemble at the K. of P. hall at 7 a. m. tomorrow morning in full uniform to take the 7:30 car for Pittsburgh.

Get Responsible Ones

It may be a little early for a forecast, but when the excitement and horror has all passed away, we think you'll find that they will have made Harry Pedersen, captain of the fateful steamer Eastland, the goat of that great disaster, just as they made the poor old captain of the Slocum the goat and later on piled the fault for the Titanic on the grave of its dead commander.

These men went out under orders from the responsible owners. Their jobs, their salaries. their living, the living of their families, depended on their carrying out the orders of the responsible owners. If they refused to "load up" or plunge forward through an ice field, their jobs were at an end and less scrupulous captains would have their places. So the accidents would have happened anyhow. Captain Pedersen was to blame only so far as he did not quit his job as navigator.

At this time there appears to be no doubt that the Eastland was overloaded —that she was habitually overloaded. Moreover, among the responsible owners there were men who knew, in spite of the careless government inspection, that she should not carry the crowds that they constantly jammed into her. To add impressiveness to his fact, is the correspondence between the owners of the Eastland and Secretary of Commerce William C. Redfield. The owners protested against the new seaman's law which goes into effect next November 1, stating that the Eastland could not carry enough life boats and life rafts to care for all the passengers they allowed aboard the steamer.

"That being the case," replied Redfield, "you'll have to obey the law, and I suggest that you begin cutting down your crowds about 1000 right away, before the law goes into effect."

This much for the responsibility of the owners. But in the investigations which are now beginning, we urge that the strongest light be thrown on the connection of the United States steamboat inspectors who counted the crowd as it surged aboard the Eastland that fatal morning. Did these men allow it to overload? If they were, by the rules of orders of the steamboat inspector general's bureau, compelled to allow it to overload, as alleged, that fact should be brought to the attention of the United States grand jury and the high government officials responsible should be held for trial for as high a crime as can be charged.

The Old Combination

When you see representatives of big combinations of capitol riding over the country in their giant touring cars with candidates they have slated for various offices, just put it down in your diary that the common people will get mighty darned little out of such an administration if they put it over. Westmoreland county politics have been largely dominated by combine organizations. Big capitolistic representatives have largely dictated the political life of the county and doled out the patronage. That is what caused the split in the Republican party and helped the Democrats to place men in office. Years of bitter factional strife resulted on account of high handed political domination which was little less than contempt, and it is only within the past few years that public officials have been allowed to use their own conscience in serving the people. It took years of fighting to depose boss rule in Westmoreland county.

Now there is another attempt to build up a political machine out of the wreckage of the old combination. Ward healers from every section of the county have been called into caucus in Greensburg and instructions given to get out and get busy in the interest of the combination that has been formed. Republicans all over the county are expected to fall all over themselves to bow to the "leaders" as they call themselves, and in some instances they are doing it. Monessen too, is expected to fall into line and help nominate the slate. This desire for control is the result of the big Republican vote in Westmoreland county when Penrose came back so overwhelmingly. Of course Monessen and other towns contributed to the Republican success, but certain ambitious individuals take the credit for the big job and have set up leaders or "dictators" and these fellows are now going to look after the affairs as in former days, even to naming the men for nomination. Voters, watch the slate. Gangsters, remember Huerta.

LILLIAN LORRAINE

Idol of New York Theatre Goers Takes Stellar Role in Screen Play.

Lillian Lorraine, who is to star in the serial, "Neal of the Navy," was born in San Francisco in 1892. Like a number of other of the popular stage favorites of the day, she made her debut before the footlights at a very early age, playing "Eva" in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," when she was only four years old. Subsequently she took a child's part with a stock company at the old Central Theatre while attending the public schools. At the age of fourteen she left San Francisco for New York, just three months before the big earthquake. She obtained a small part in a musical comedy under Richard Golden almost immediately on her arrival. Her next engagement was with Eddie Foy in "The Orchid," half time in chorus and half doing a small part. Because of her striking personality Mr. Foy soon took her out of the chorus and gave her a song. The impression she made resulted in her being given an engagement in "The Great White Way," with Blanche Ring and Jeff De Angelis. Her first real chance came when she was engaged by Florence Ziegfield to appear in support of Anna Held in "Miss Innocence." The next year saw a further advance in that she was featured in the "1909 Follies" with Nora Bayes and Jack Norworth. She remained with the "Follies" for the next three years, being starred in the "Follies of 1912," when Nora Bayes dropped out.

She became the sensation and favorite of Broadway in a remarkably short time. She broke into vaudeville with a six months' engagement over the U. B. O. eastern time as a headline feature in a single singing act with original songs. In 1914 she was featured in the big "Whirl of the World" cast, an all-the-season New York success. She was filling another U. B. O. vaudeville engagement when approached by H. M. Horkheimer, of Balboa, who induced her to appear in pictures for the first time in "Neal of the Navy," which he was about to put on for Pathe. Previously she had turned down many flattering offers from film manufacturers.

Miss Lorraine still preserves her fondness for musical comedy and expects to appear in New York in a big production this fall. She has been frequently offered stellar parts in drama and hopes eventually to be seen therein. Her screen work indicates a splendid fitness for this line of dramatic endeavor. Miss Lorraine is especially well known in New York for, like most of the great favorites of the stage, she has been featured there steadily in Broadway productions.

CREIGHTON HALE

Creighton Hale's fame extends the length and breadth of the land as the man who plays the part of Jameson in Pathe's Elaine serial.

In playing this part he seems to have found a fitting vehicle for his art and has made a tremendous hit. He is the junior member of the great Elaine "firm" of stars; Arnold Daly, Sheldon Lewis, Edwin Arden, Lionel Barrymore, and Creighton Hale.

A JOINT RESOLUTION

Proposing an amendment to section eight of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania.

Section. 1 Be it resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met, That the following is proposed as an amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:—

Amend section eight, article nine of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, which reads as follows:

"Section 8. The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the assent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which now exceeds seven per centum of such assessed valuation, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum, in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation, except that any debt or debts hereinafter incurred by the city and county of Philadelphia for the construction and development of subways for transit purposes, or for the construction of wharves and docks, or the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of a system of wharves and docks, as public improvements, owned or to be owned by said city and county of Philadelphia, and which shall yield to the city and county of Philadelphia current net revenues in excess of the interest on said debt or debts, and the annual installments necessary for the cancellation of said debt or debts, may be excluded in ascertaining the power of the city and county of Philadelphia to become otherwise indebted: Provided, That a sinking fund of their cancellation shall be established and maintained," so that it shall read as follows:—

Section 8 The debt of any county, city, borough, township, school district, or other municipality or incorporated district, except as herein provided, shall never exceed seven per centum upon the assessed value of the taxable property therein, nor shall any such municipality or district incur any new debt, or increase its indebtedness to an amount exceeding two per centum upon such assessed valuation of property, without the consent of the electors thereof at a public election in such manner as shall be provided by law; but any city, the debt of which on the first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four, exceeded seven per centum of such assessed valuation, and has not since been reduced to less than such per centum, may be authorized by law to increase the same three per centum in the aggregate, at any one time, upon such valuation. The city of Philadelphia, upon the conditions hereinafter set forth, may increase its indebtedness to the extent of three per centum in excess of seven per centum upon such assessed valuation for the specific purpose of providing for all or any of the following purposes,—to wit: For the construction and improvement of subways, tunnels, railways, elevated railways, and other transit facilities; for the construction and improvement of wharves and docks and for the reclamation of land to be used in the construction of wharves and docks, owned or to be owned by said city. Such increase, however, shall only be made with the assent of the electors thereof at a public election, to be held in such manner as shall be provided by law. In ascertaining the borrowing capacity of said city of Philadelphia, at any time, there shall be excluded from the calculation a credit, where the work resulting from any previous expenditure, for any one or more of the specific purposes hereinabove enumerated shall be yielding to said city an annual current net revenue; the amount of which credit shall be ascertained by capitalizing the annual net revenue during the year immediately preceding the time of such ascertainment. Such capitalization shall be accomplished by ascertaining the principal amount which would yield such annual, current net revenue, at the average rate of interest, and sinking-fund charges payable upon the indebtedness incurred by said city for such purposes, up to the time of such ascertainment. The method of determining such amount, so to be excluded or allowed as a credit, may be prescribed by the General Assembly.

In incurring indebtedness, for any one, or more of said purposes of construction, improvement, or reclamation, the city of Philadelphia may issue its obligations maturing not later than fifty years from the date thereof, with provision for a sinking-fund sufficient to retire said obligation at maturity, the payments to such sinking-fund to be in equal or graded annual instalment. Such obligations may be in an amount sufficient to provide for and may include the amount of the interest and sinking-fund charges accruing and which may accrue thereon throughout the period of construction and until the expiration of one year after the completion of the work for which said indebtedness shall have been incurred; and said city shall not be required to levy a tax to pay said interest and sinking-fund charges, as required by section ten of article nine of the Constitution of Pennsylvania, until the expiration of said period of one year after the completion of such work.

The Proof is Here the Same as Everywhere

For those who seek relief from kidney backache, weak kidneys, bladder ills, Doan's Kidney Pills offer hope of relief, and the proof is here in Monessen the same as everywhere. Monessen people have used Doan's and Monessen people recommend Doan's, the kidney remedy used in America for fifty years. Why suffer? Why run the risk of dangerous ills—fatal Bright's disease. Here's Monessen proof. Investigate it.

Mrs. J. Feightner, 133 Oneida street, Monesen, says: "I suffered from severe pains in my left side and across my back. I often had dizzy spells and my appetite was poor. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at the Hirsch Drug Co., although I had but little faith in them. I am very glad that I did, for they did me a world of good. I highly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone suffering from kidney disorders."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, And unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever, nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces

GALA OCCASION TOMORROW

Tomorow will be an event long to be remembered when the Jones Bros Big Three Ring Wild Animal circus arives in town. For this giant, three fold circus has struck a solar plexus blow to the rest of the sawdust fraternity. Never in the history of circusdom has such a varied collection of wild animals, marveiously educated and trained horses, ponies and other performing domestic animals been brought together. In fact, the Jones Bros. have combined their big shows in one big, gigantic organization that offers an entertainment surpassed by none Always they have maintained a clean and refined show and this season they have eclipsed all previous efforts to carry still further their standard of excellence in every department Not a suggestive or offensive act is allowed to offend the most fastidious or permitted to mar a performance that is joy supreme. The women and children auditors are considered first and their comfort and enjoyment is the first consideration of the Jones Bros., whose wonderful amusement institution is educational as well as entertaining. There are so many marvelous and thrilling features, so much to interest and please for the big arena is jammed full of high class performers, many stars of proven ability collected from far European countries and secured through the business sagacity of the Jones Bros The best are none too good. The same applies to their blooded stock which consists of the largest variety of thoroughbred horses ever controlled by one management. High school and posing horses, the world's record holding high jumpers, famous bareback riders and a lengthy array of gymnasts, aerialists, jugglers, tumblers and many other exploits of dexterity and daring This mammoth caravan, filled with the wonders of the Arabian Nights, employs sufficient people to fill a village and transportation is made in their own steel trains; while the big free street parade showing open cages of wild animals is a revelation in artistic trappings, gorgeous chariots and superb horses,

Under Arrest

Joe Young and John Martz, two leaders of Monessen's band of youthful thieves, are again in the toils of the local police. The boys are charged with stealing a sum of money from a local man several days ago. Both mothers of the boys appeared before the Justice of the Peace Watkins and stated that they could do nothing with them. Information was made and they will be sent to Greensburg today to await the action of the juvenile court Nearly half a hundred petty thefts have been charged up to the boys who are members of this gang, but on each occasion, no information was brought against them and they were allowed their freedom If the officers of the juvenile court can be convinced they are incorrigibles, it is thought they will be given a trip to a reform school.
